Note from our President

Hello Weavers,

Fall is in full swing and I hope you are all weaving. Time for snuggly shawls and woolly scarves. Don't forget to be working on your project for the holiday gift exchange. You bring a gift, you get one. Our theme this year is "household textile" so it should be easy for everyone to come up with something fun.

Happy Weaving, Jacqueline

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

This newsletter marks the end of my tenure as newsletter editor – it has certainly gone quickly and has been a lot of fun. Kathleen Worley has agreed to take on this position so please send all comments, questions and items for inclusion to her going forward. Her email is kckatw@aol.com. There is no newsletter in December.

Further down in the newsletter you will find a listing for all new members from this year. Feel free to add these members to your directory. Sorry that I was remiss in not sending the information earlier.

For those of you who subscribe to Robyn Spady's newsletter "Heddlecraft", please let me know if you're interested in participating in an occasional study group. The latest issue just came out and if there is enough participation, I'd like to schedule something for December.

Best Wishes to all my fellow weavers –

Rebekah Foote

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Programs:

November - Becky Stevens and Judy Santner present on felting.

December – Holiday Party potluck and gift exchange.

Newsletter:

Rebekah reports that she will be adding names of new members to the newsletter.

Workshops:

Lynette reports success of Robyn Spady workshop.

Felting Study Group:

Judy Santner reports the next felting meeting will be October 20th at her home, 10433 Earnshaw, OP, KS.

Library:

No Report.

KAWS (Kansas Alliance of Weavers and Spinners):

Lynette reports the committee has been hard at work planning. She distributed two sign up sheets:

- 1- For pre-conference workshop ideas. This will be approx. 2 ½ days in length. Submit name of person you would like to be taught by or techniques you would like to learn.
- 2- For ½ day class instructor ideas. These classes will be 2 ½ - 3 hours in length. Looking for members who would like to teach a class or names of local people they would like to take a class from.

Scholarships:

Jacqueline reports there is still a need for a new head to the committee. Current process is still in review.

Community Service Project:

No report.

Creative Hand:

Leesa Duby reports that October 13th is deadline for signing up and for changing your production status. October 28th is the mandatory Artist Meeting. Contact Leesa, Sandy Cahill, or Jamie Root with questions. Sandy Cahill reports there are a record number of 70 artists participating this year. Next month she will take names of those interested in volunteering for a work shift during Creative Hand. The benefit of volunteering is the opportunity for early shopping.

Sewing and Handwoven Study Group:

Jacqueline reported the group is working on origami tops. She was modeling her stunning first attempt.

Old Business:

Jacqueline informed:

We are still in need of someone to step up to be our next president. Let a board member know if you are interested.

Margaret Wisker has volunteered to be our new hostess!!

There was discussion for use of donation sales money.

A suggestion was made for a portion of the money to be earmarked for programs. Our treasurer informed this is best operated through the budget. Another idea was for denim shirts embroidered with our guild logo. It was determined this option is too expensive. Many liked the idea of having denim shirts. A suggestion was made for ordering to be coordinated by an individual, not through guild.

The two viable options are canvas tote bags embroidered with the guild logo and a dye workshop at Florilegium in Westin.

- Lynette motions we vote to take a guild field trip to Florilegium in Westin for a dye workshop. Money would cover workshop fee and bus fee. 24 voting YES
- Debbie Buddish motions we vote to spend money for embroidered canvas tote bags. 7 vote YES.

Lynette motions that money remaining after the Florilegium dye workshop be placed in checking account. Motion passes.

New Business:

Our December holiday party needs table hosts. Hosting includes providing table cloth, table decorations, plates and plastic ware. There were no volunteers today. Jacqueline will provide sign up sheet at November meeting.

Rebekah Foot noted Robyn Spady's HeddleCraft publication is full of useful information. She would like to coordinate a 3 – 4 hour get together following release of the next issue as a time to review and discuss the information. Copies of the issue WILL NOT be distributed. This is for those who receive the publication.

Lynette Beebe, as the guild historian, has 4 large garbage bags full of historical guild information. She received these 5 years ago as she began the roll as historian. No one has ever asked to see this information during the time it has been in her possession. She is hosting a sorting party to sift through this material. It will be determined what is valuable to the guild to save and what can be tossed. A decision will then be made as to how to archive these historical items. Details for the sorting party:

Lynette Beebe's home
5514 Mullen Road
Shawnee, KS
October 25th
10:00-3:00
Bring your own lunch

Sign up sheet passed for those who can attend. Please let Lynette know if you are coming and did not sign up.

Business meeting adjourned. Show and tell followed. Bea Bonanno shared very useful information in her "Colors That Go Together" presentation.
